Art.12. Convening and holding of the General Meeting of Shareholders

12.1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall be convened by the Board of Directors of the Company whenever necessary. The Board of Directors shall immediately convene a General Meeting of Shareholders at the request of shareholders representing, individually or jointly, at least 5% of the share capital and if the request contains provisions falling within the powers of the Meeting.

12.2. Unless the notice convening the General Meeting of Shareholders indicates another venue, the place of holding the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be the registered office of the Company.

12.3. The notice of meeting shall be published in the Official Gazette of Romania, Part IV, on the Company's website and in one of the newspapers of wide circulation in the locality where the Company's registered office is located or in the nearest locality. The time limit for the meeting may not be less than 30 days from the publication of the notice in the Official Gazette of Romania, Part IV.

12.4. The notice convening the first General Meeting shall also fix the date for the second General Meeting if the quorum required for the first General Meeting is not met.

12.5. Following the admission of the Company's shares to trading, the Company shall make available to shareholders, for the period beginning at least 30 days before the date of the General Meeting and up to and including the date of the Meeting, the documents relating to the operations concerning the manner of convening General Meetings. At the same time, the related documents as well as the method of convening and holding the General Meeting must be in accordance with the provisions of the Law on Companies, in conjunction with the provisions of the capital market legislation.

12.6. For the validity of the deliberations of the Ordinary General Meeting, the presence of shareholders representing at least 50% of the total number of voting rights is required at the first convocation. If these conditions are not met, the meeting to be convened at a second convocation may deliberate on the items on the agenda of the first meeting, regardless of the quorum present. Resolutions of ordinary general meetings shall be passed by a majority of the votes cast by the shareholders present in person or represented.

12.7. For the validity of the deliberations of the Extraordinary General Meeting, the presence of shareholders holding at least 50% of the total number of voting rights is required for the first convocation and for the following convocations, the presence of shareholders representing at least one fifth of the total number of voting rights. Decisions of the extraordinary general meeting shall be taken by a majority of the votes cast by the shareholders present or represented.

12.8. Decisions on the modification of the main object of activity of the Company, reduction or increase of the share capital, change of legal form, merger, division or dissolution of the Company shall be taken by the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders with a majority of at least two thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders present or represented.

12.9. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall be chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by the person designated by him from among the directors. On the day and at the time indicated in the notice of meeting, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be opened by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by the person designated by him.

The General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect, from among the shareholders present, a Secretary who, together with the Secretary of the Board of Directors, shall check the attendance list of shareholders, indicating the share capital that each shareholder represents, and shall draw up the minutes of the meeting in order to establish that all the formalities required by law and by the Articles of Association have been fulfilled. The General Meeting of Shareholders may appoint a lawyer to carry out the operations falling within the duties of the secretary, at the expense of the Company.

12.10. The minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be signed by the Chairman of the meeting and the two secretaries. The documents relating to the convening of the meeting and the attendance lists of shareholders shall be attached. The minutes shall be entered in the register of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

12.11. The Company may use electronic means to enable shareholders to participate and vote at the General Meeting, with the prior decision of the Board of Directors, which shall also approve the procedures to be followed for the use of such means. In this case, the convening notice shall contain the necessary information regarding the participation and the exercise of voting rights at the General Meeting.

Art. 13. Exercise of the right to vote at the General Meeting of Shareholders

13.1. Shareholders shall exercise their voting rights in the General Meeting of Shareholders in proportion to the number of shares they hold. If the shares are subject to security interests, the voting right shall belong to the owner. In the case of shares subject to a right of usufruct, the voting rights conferred by these shares belong to the usufructuary at Ordinary General Meetings and to the bare owner at Extraordinary General Meetings.

13.2. Shareholders may participate and vote in the General Meeting of Shareholders by proxy on the basis of a proxy granted for that General Meeting in accordance with the applicable legal provisions.

13.3. Shareholders entitled to participate in the General Meeting of Shareholders are those who hold shares on the reference date in accordance with the applicable legal provisions. Access to the General Meeting of Shareholders by these shareholders is permitted by simply proving their identity, in the case of individual shareholders, by means of their identity card or, in the case of legal entities and represented individual shareholders, by means of the proxy given to the individual representing them.

13.4. Resolutions of the general meeting of shareholders shall be passed by a simple majority of the voting rights held by the shareholders present or represented, unless the Companies Act, capital market legislation or the Memorandum of Association imperatively provides for another quorum. Resolutions of the general meeting of shareholders taken in accordance with the law and the Articles of Association shall be binding even on shareholders who are absent or who have voted against, in accordance with the Companies Act.

13.5. A shareholder who, in a particular transaction, has, either personally or as a trustee for another person, an interest contrary to that of the Company, shall abstain from deliberations on that transaction. A shareholder who contravenes this provision shall be liable for damages to the Company if, without his vote, the required majority would not have been obtained.

13.6. Decisions of general meetings shall be taken by open vote. A secret ballot is mandatory for the election of directors and the financial auditor, for their dismissal and for resolutions concerning the liability of directors or whenever the General Meeting of Shareholders decides to use a secret ballot.

13.7. No resolution may be passed on items on the agenda which have not been published in the notice convening the meeting, unless all shareholders were present or represented and none of them objected to or contested the resolution.

13.8. The Company shall establish for each resolution adopted by the General Meeting of Shareholders the number of shares for which valid votes were cast, the proportion of the share capital represented by those votes, the total number of valid votes cast, as well as the number of votes cast for and against each resolution and, if applicable, the number of abstentions. The voting results must be published on the official website no later than 15 days after the date of the General Meeting.

13.9. In order to be enforceable against third parties, the resolutions of the General Assembly shall be filed within 15 days at the Trade Register Office, to be mentioned in the register and published in the Official Gazette of Romania, Part IV.

13.10. The provisions of this Memorandum of Association concerning the convening and conduct of the General Meeting of Shareholders, including the publication of resolutions adopted in the exercise of its powers, shall be supplemented, as appropriate, by the legal and regulatory requirements stipulated by the Companies Act and other regulations pertaining to the Company's main field of activity. In addition, following the admission to trading of the Company's shares, the provisions of the Law on Issuers of Financial Instruments and Market Operations and the regulations issued in implementation thereof shall be applicable.

CHAPTER IX COMPANY ACTIVITY

Art.21. Financial year

The financial year shall begin on 1 January and end on 31 December of each year.

Art.22. Profits and losses of the Company. Dividends

22.1. The profit of the Company shall be determined on the basis of the annual financial statements approved by the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders. Taxable profit and corporate income tax shall be determined in accordance with tax legislation in force. The company shall set up a reserve fund representing at least 5% of the taxable profit made in a tax year until this reserve fund reaches at least one fifth of the share capital.

22.2. Dividends due to the Company's shareholders shall be proposed by the Board of Directors and approved by the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders and shall be distributed to shareholders in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act and, after admission to trading, in accordance with the provisions of the Act on issuers of financial instruments and market operations.

22.3. After admission to trading, the date on which the shareholders who are to receive dividends or other rights and on whom the effects of the resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders are to be passed shall be determined by the General Meeting of Shareholders. This date shall be at least 10 working days after the date of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

22.4. When the dividends are fixed, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall also fix the date on which they shall be paid to shareholders. This date shall not be set later than 6 months from the date of the General Meeting of Shareholders fixing the dividends.

22.5. If the General Meeting of Shareholders does not fix the date of payment of dividends, they shall be paid within 30 days from the date of publication of the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders fixing the dividends in the Official Gazette of Romania, Part IV, after which date the Company shall be automatically in arrears. Dividends are other amounts due to the holders of securities and are paid through the Central Depository or participants (intermediaries).

Art.23. Reduction and increase of share capital

23.1. Reduction of share capital may be made by:

- a) reduction in the number of shares;
- b) reduction of the nominal value of the shares;
- c) acquisition of own shares, followed by their cancellation.

23.2. Share capital may also be reduced, when the reduction is not motivated by losses, by:

- a) the return to shareholders of a share of the contributions, proportional to the capital reduction and calculated equally for each share;
- b) other procedures provided for by law.

23.3. The reduction of the share capital may be made only after two months from the day on which the decision was published in the Official Gazette of Romania, Part IV. The resolution must comply with the minimum share capital requirement established by the regulations applicable to brokerage companies issued by the Financial Supervisory Authority, state the reasons for making the reduction and the procedure to be used to make it.

23.4. If the Board of Directors finds that, as a result of losses, as determined by the annual financial statements approved by law, the net assets of the Company, determined as the difference between its total assets and total liabilities, have decreased to less than half the amount of the subscribed share capital, it shall immediately convene an Extraordinary General Meeting to decide whether the Company should be dissolved. If the Extraordinary General Meeting does not decide to dissolve the Company, then the Company shall be obliged, at the latest by the end of the financial year following that in which the losses were incurred, to reduce the share capital by an amount at least equal to the amount of the losses which could not be covered from reserves, if during this period the net assets of the Company have not been restored to an amount at least equal to half of the share capital.

23.5. The share capital may be increased by:

- a) the issue of new shares;
- b) increase the nominal value of existing shares in exchange for new cash contributions .

23.6. The increase of the share capital by public offer of securities is subject to capital market legislation. New shares shall also be paid up by incorporation of reserves, except for legal reserves, as well as of profits or share premiums, or by offsetting certain liquid and payable claims on the Company against shares of the Company, in accordance with the law.

23.7 Favourable differences from the revaluation of the company's assets shall be included in reserves, without increasing the share capital.

23.8. The resolution of the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders to increase the share capital shall be published in the Official Gazette, Part IV. The shares issued for the capital increase shall be offered for subscription first to existing shareholders in proportion to the number of shares they hold, who may exercise their pre-emptive rights only within the period decided by the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.

23.9. In the case of share capital increases by cash contribution, the lifting of the shareholders' pre-emptive right to subscribe for new shares must be decided at the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, attended by shareholders representing at least 85% of the subscribed share capital and with the vote of shareholders holding at least 3/4 of the voting rights. Following the lifting of the shareholders' pre-emptive right to subscribe for the new shares, they will be offered for subscription to the public in compliance with the provisions on public offers of securities and the regulations issued in application thereof.

After the admission to trading of the Company's shares, resolutions of the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, contrary to the law or the Articles of Incorporation, which have the effect of modifying the share capital, may be challenged in court, within 15 days from the date of publication in the Official Gazette, Part IV, by any of the shareholders who did not take part in the general meeting or who voted against it and requested that this be inserted in the minutes of the meeting.

23.10. In the case of a waiver of pre-emptive rights, in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the number of shares shall be determined as the ratio between the value of the contribution and the higher of the market price of a share, the value per share calculated on the basis of the net book value or the nominal value of the share.
